

66th ANNUAL BAND CAMP CONCERT

July 11-16, 2021
SWOSU Fine Arts Auditorium
Weatherford, Oklahoma

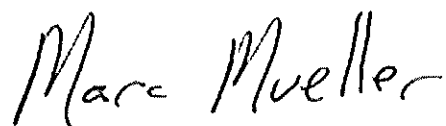

SWOSU
DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Welcome

As Director of Bands at the SWOSU Department of Music, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the final concerts of the 2021 SWOSU Band Camp. We are honored to hold this camp for our 66th year. There have been countless hours of preparation, scheduling, many phone calls, and hundreds of emails to bring this event to a successful conclusion. I would personally like to thank the camp staff, counselors, and faculty for their hard work and dedication. This camp could not run without their participation.

I would like to thank all of the band directors and music teachers who encouraged their students to expand their musical horizons by attending this camp. A music teacher's career is built upon helping others improve their musical skills and their abilities as a person. These devoted music educators spend their lives working well beyond what their teaching contract requires of them in order to help your son or daughter make music, work well with others, learn self-discipline and respect for authority, as well as create art as an outlet for self-expression. These music professionals leave a permanent imprint on your children, influencing them in the years to come. I encourage you to please take a moment and thank them for their passion of teaching music to your child.

Lastly, and most importantly, I would like to express my gratitude to you as a parent or family member of a camper performing onstage this afternoon. Your willingness to part with your son or daughter for a week provides the opportunity to elevate their musical experiences, meet new friends, and learn the value of hard work and cooperation. You are the reason they are here. You are the reason they have a love for music. You are the reason that they are able to extend themselves beyond what they thought was possible. Without your encouragement and support, music programs would not exist. Thank you for making music a priority for your child and I hope that it will stay a part of their lives well beyond this one week at band camp.

Professor of Music Dr. Richard Tirk grew up in rural Illinois in a musical family. He completed a Music Education degree at the Lawrence Conservatory of Music in Appleton, Wisconsin in 1996. His desire to pursue a degree in trumpet led him to Kalamazoo, Michigan where he was a trumpet graduate assistant at Western Michigan University and completed a Masters degree in Trumpet Performance. While in Kalamazoo, Dr. Tirk continued his work in music education as the director of bands at the Gagie School. In 1999, Richard began his doctoral studies with Richard Illman at Michigan State University serving as the graduate teaching assistant and performing with the Beaumont Brass Quintet. During his studies, Dr. Tirk was active as a performer in Mid-Michigan holding the post of principal trumpet with both the Saginaw Bay and Midland Symphony Orchestras where he performed with such artists as Doc Severinsen, Dave Brubeck, and the Julliard String Quartet. As a soloist, Dr. Tirk has performed across the U.S. and on five different continents. Some notable performances include recitals in Scotland, England, Haiti, Brazil, at the 2010 International Trumpet Guild Conference in Sydney, Australia, and Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 2 with the Midland Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Tirk is a staunch advocate for new music having commissioned several works for trumpet and has been involved with the premieres of dozens of works either as a performer or conductor. A dedicated clinician, Dr. Tirk has presented masterclasses at several universities and institutions in the U.S. and internationally including the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama in Glasgow, Scotland and Ecole de Musique Ste. Trinite in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Before SWOSU, Dr. Tirk was on faculty at Luther College, Bethel College, Independence Community College, and the University of Michigan-Flint. At Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Dr. Tirk teaches trumpet, assists with the band program, and is the director of Jazz Ensemble A, and Jazz Ensemble B
